- Use hotel safes: Keep valuables, passports, and jewellery in the hotel safe rather than carrying them around.
- ✗ Don'ts in Goa
- Avoid carrying large sums of cash: Use cards or UPI where possible, and keep cash split across pockets.
- Don't litter beaches or heritage sites: Goa is strict about cleanliness; use bins provided.
- Skip unlicensed shacks or taxis: Stick to registered operators to avoid scams.
- Don't drink & drive: Police checks are frequent; penalties are strict.
- Avoid disrespectful behaviour: Loud partying near religious or residential areas is frowned upon.
- Don't ignore safety at waterfalls: At Dudhsagar, beware of monkeys and slippery rocks — keep belongings secure.

Quick Safety Checklist

- Keep photocopies of ID/passport separately.
- Carry a small backpack instead of handbags (safer against snatching).
- Use mosquito repellent in forested areas.
- Stay alert at crowded beaches and markets.
- Respect “No Photography” signs in churches and temples.

This guide complements your itinerary perfectly — ensuring you enjoy Goa's beaches, heritage, and food while staying safe and respectful.
